

Versatile Race Volunteer

You want to help with races but not sure how. We all need to start somewhere.

In the organization of a race, the organizer crew is highly dependent on reliable volunteers. In case of a big event like hosting Nationals, a lot of positions are available to help offering a great event.

It is good practice to contribute to smaller events/races prior to these majors ones to understand what's involved. This page is for you.

Positions can be timing team, race secretary, stadium set up and many more...

- Time Commitment

Variable, depending of the race and position

- # of Volunteers Needed

No limit

- Duties and Responsibilities

Depending of the position

- Required Skills

Only being motivated is require

- Required Certification or Documents

Depending of the position, some certification might be requested

- Training

Training or briefing if required will be provided by the race organizer prior to the event

- Report to: Club manager: info@xcskiwhitehorse.ca

- Sign up : volunteersignup.org/L7J8M